

Member's Profile

Name of Regulator	China Securities Industry Standardization Committee (CSISC)
Country/Region	China
The Executive/President	Mr Ye ZHANG
Number of Officers and Employees	On June 1, 2015, CSISC completed the transition. The third generation of committee has 55 members from regulators, stock exchanges, securities and futures institutions, banks, insurances and standardization research institution.
Brief History	China Securities Industry Standardization Technical Committee (CSISC, SAC/TC180/SC4) was founded in December 2003, which was authorized by the Standardization Administration of the P.R.C. (SAC).
Statutory Objectives	In the Securities and Futures industry, CSISC is dedicated to the work of the national technology standardization, which is responsible for technical management of the Securities and Futures Industry Standardization and for the domestic work related to original ISO/TC68/SC4.
Mandate/Functions/Powers	CSISC includes the CSISC Secretariat, Numbering and standards service center and professional working groups. The CSISC Secretariat is permanent body of the CSISC. It is mainly responsible for handling the daily work of CSISC, including the distribution of the draft standards and the handling of feedbacks, the preparation of meetings and the approval of standards. Numbering and standards service center is business executive body of CSISC. It is mainly responsible for the allocation and management of industry codes, China capital market standard website construction and maintenance, dynamic tracking and analysis of domestic and international standardization, industry standardization research, and providing standards-related services for market institutions. CSISC has established professional working groups in 11 fields. It is mainly responsible for the research, assessment and certification of standards in the field of securities and futures industry subdivision. It also provides guidance and suggestions for the drafting of standards.
Code of conduct	The articles of CSISC, working rules of secretariat and standard center, management measures of professional working groups and standardization work

We regulate

The industry institutions related to the China capital market standardization work

Contact Information

CSISC Secretariat:

zbwmsc@csits.org.cn

Numbering&Standard Service Center:

csisc@csits.org.cn

Remarks