

Biography

Torsten Ulrich is Vice-Chair of the Board at ANNA. He studied economics at the University of Stuttgart-Hohenheim. After several years as corporate customer advisor in the banking industry and his subsequent position as investment manager in venture capital, he switched in 1999 to the Stuttgart Stock Exchange. Over the years his responsibilities included marketing, sales, stock exchange system and especially information products. As managing director, he focused between 2013 and 2015, exclusively on the growth of this in the meantime established core business in the Stuttgart Stock Exchange Group. In June 2015, Torsten Ulrich switched to WM Gruppe. As managing director, he is responsible for the WM Datenservice.